The Lord is our Shepherd. He is in every detail of our lives. How often do we notice the tender mercies or even the big miracles? How often do we realize when our Shepherd is leading us through out lives, down to the minute? Take a few minutes to ponder the following question: How have you seen the hand of God reaching out to you lately?